day, October 30.

By order Committee.

H. D. WADDELL, Chairman.

B. W. FENTON, Secretary.

Vote early, and see that your neighbor does.

Next Tuesday is election day, and don't forget it!

No room for retired tobaccoists in the Court House.

The more boodle the Gazette gets the louder it cries against it.

Vote for George W. Lefevre, the best Auditor Highland county ever had.

Do you want a Jumbo and nothing but a Jumbo for Congressmen? Then don't vote for Pugsley.

Why does the Gazette ignore the State and county ticket and work only for Denver and against Pugsley. Booodle, dear booodle, sweet booodle.

The average Republican majority in Clay township on State ticket is 35. Dittie's majority was 66—a change of 100. Rate!

Ring the chestnut bell.

If Gaddis is willing to spend $500 at any time to defeat a Republican from his own township how much will he spend to secure his own election as Auditor.

Fire him off the ticket, Dittie. He is a boodler and has a barrel.

During the Dittie-Kelley campaign Gaddis made an open remark on the streets of Lynchburg that he would spend $500 out of his own pocket rather than see a Republican from Dodson township elected to any office. And now this same individual has the gall to ask the Republicans of Dodson to vote for him.

Dittie has been known to express himself privately that he was not unfriendly to Pugsley; that personally he had not anything against him; that he admired him as a man; that he would not be unreasonable even if he were elected; that his character and record are irreproachable; in fact, intimating that his election would not displease him. Then why is it that when the visit of Denver his admiration for Senator Pugsley and his friendliness for him has turned to such abuse, and consequently, invective hatred. Sing boodle, dear boodle, sweet boodle.

John M. Foust is the man for Commissioner.

Sing boodle, dear boodle, sweet boodle.

See that every Republican in your neighborhood votes.

The Democrats are disgruntled and divided with General Dittie, predicting a defeat.

The Republicans are united and happy, with General Harmony at the head of command.

Pugsley's majority last year was 812 in Highland county. Let us make it 1,000 this year.

Vote for Jake Pugsley for Congress.

He has served the county faithfully and well, and is entitled to your support.

Everybody should turn out next Saturday night. The Glee Club will sing

"Boodle, Dear Boodle, Sweet Boodle."

Hon. J. J. Pugsley and Henry A.

Pavey will address the people at City Hall next Saturday night. Everybody invited.

Vote for Foust for Commissioner. He is an excellent man; an honorable, upright citizen, eminently qualified for the position.

Vote for Barney Grim for Infirmary

Director. He is as honest as the day is long, and will fill the position acceptably to all classes.

A vote for Follett for Supreme Judge is a declaration in favor of his decision that forged election returns must be counted as forged.

Denver is the richest nominee the Democrats have ever had and the Gazette is fighting as it never did before.

Draw your own conclusions.

Get out the votes, boys, and we'll paralyze 'em this year. The Democrats are becoming restive under the lash of Boss Dittie and deserting him by the score.

The average Republican majority in Clay

majority was 66—a change of 100. Rate!

"People that live in glass houses," etc.

A vote for the Democratic State ticket is a vote to endorse President Cleveland's veto of 102 bills against crippled soldiers. Don't insult veteran soldiers.

The average Republican majority in Clay

majority was 66—a change of 100. Rate!

Sing boodle, dear boodle, sweet

boodle.

In his speech at the convention the other day, General Denver said he had every reason to believe that he would be elected. He won't have so many after next Tuesday.

Democratic candidate for Congress,

James W. Denver, Washington D. C.; Democratic candidate for Auditor of Highland county, a Mr. Gaddis from somewhere in Texas.

The Democrats may skin dead convicts, but with proper effort on our part, a long pull, a strong pull, and a pull altogether, on the 2d of November we will skin the Democrats alive.

Republicans, don't rest too easy because the Democrats gave up the contest in the start. You have an easy race to win, but don't go to sleep by the wayside and let the tortoise take a march on you.

The average Republican majority in Clay

And the villain still pursued her.

Denver's income each year amounts to more than the value of Senator Pugley's entire estate. And yet the Gazette is still croaking about the poor man.

Poor old Denver, he is only poor in statesmanship and brains.

From the number of Democrats in the western part of the county that have already announced themselves as being opposed to Gaddis, it would seem that the Democratic nominee is not very popular at home. They say he would run better in Texas.

Mr. A. F. Richards, who, for the past four years, has been conducting a successful dairy in this city and vicinity, sold his stock in trade last week to Mr.

J. E. Roads. Mr. Roads has also leased

Mr. Richards' farm for a period of three years, and will continue the business in the same enterprising manner as his predecessor.

John McBride, in one of his speeches in this campaign, referring to men who own property, said: "I trust I will be found in the ranks of the people, a Socialist if you like, a Communist if you like; may, and more, an Anarchist if you like, to tear them up, root and branch." Can you vote for him?

W. R. Gaddis, the candidate for Auditor, Ohio, for long years and is widely known. His nomination by acclamation was flattering and speaks as to his popularity. He will wear the Jeffersonian test as to honesty and qualification, and needs no encomium from us.—Gazette.

The Gazette was unfortunate in the use of its terms. It will not do to use stereotyped phrases with regard to every candidate whom the Democratic party may nominate.

Having purchased the editorial page of the Hillsboro Gazette and engaged the editor thereof, at a very high figure, to sing his praises and sling mud at the Republican candidate, his Highland county barrel has already been exhausted and for this reason, and this alone, has the Gazette been inflicting its readers with Denver's old chestnut about a pure ballet. The Gazette, since it has lost all the county patronage, is a little pressed for boodle and hope by this means to throw the boys off the scent, and get all the sugar themselves.
